ADDITIONAL INFORMATION / SERVICE HISTORY

1956 Jaguar Mark VII 3.4 Litre 190BHP

Chassis Number: 728823DN

Registration Number: PYS465

Under the previous ownership for over 45 years. This car is a very very rare survivor in simply perfect condition throughout. It has belonged to a prominent Scottish motor museum for many years where it has been both displayed & also used regularly but sparingly. The car has covered 95,500 miles from new. Incremental MOT certificates show a very gradual increase in mileage during the prior ownership.

The car is now back on the market as the wife of the gentleman whom we sold it to finds it too big to drive & enjoy & is more comfortable in their Bentley R Type.

£5,000 has been recently spent upon the car including fitting power steering & replacing a leaking fuel tank & changing all rubber hoses etc in the engine bay to brand new items. The car is thus in amazingly good order & drives beautifully.

When new the car was supplied to Glasgow where it was chauffeur driven for the early part of its life. The museum owners purchased the car decades ago from the second owner having looked long & far for a pristine example of the model.

The interior red leather of this venerable Jaguar is original to the car & beautifully preserved. The copious burr walnut woodwork is all in perfect condition. The chrome work has been redone where needed & also the car has had a full very high quality respray in it's original colour of grey.

Being a later model of the Mark 7 it benefits from the higher 190HP engine connected to the 4 speed manual gear box.

I have to stress what perfect condition this Jaguar is in made all the better for the original leather of the interior. It is an opulent & comfortable car to travel in comparing very very well to similar R Type & S1 Bentley/Rolls Royce cars of the period being a little more sporting in nature but with similar creature comforts. It is of course far far rarer than its Rolls or Bentley equivalents.

It may be viewed by prior appointment near Sandbach in Cheshire. but is of a quality where it may be purchased sight unseen in complete confidence. We can collect & deliver the car world wide to the next lucky owner.
